Group A - Day 3

USA QUALIFIES; COSTA RICA ADVANCES TO PLAYOFF

16.04.2005: The USA qualified to the 2005 FIFA Under-17 World Championship after capturing the CONCACAF Final Round Group A Crown with a 2:1 victory over the host Costa Rica at the Estadio Eladio Rosabal Cordero in Heredia.

Nikolas Besagno and Omar Gonzalez scored in the 10th and 60th minutes, respectively for the USA (2-0-1, 7 Points), while Cesar Elizondo Quesada had the only tally for Costa Rica (2-1-0, 6 Points) in the 66th minute in the 2:1 loss.

The stars & stripes' victory extends their unbeaten streak to 16 games in CONCACAF U-17 Qualification and they are also the only team to have qualified to all the FIFA World Championships (1985-2005).

The ticos, who finished second in CONCACAF Final Round Group A, will meet the runner-up from Group B, in a home-and-away playoff series for the third CONCACAF berth to the FIFA event.

In an earlier Group A encounter, El Salvador (0-2-1, 1 Point) played Cuba (0-1-2, 2 Points) to a 2:2 draw. The cubanos took a 2:0 lead with goals by Adrián Hernández and Luis Villegas in the 19th and 26th minutes, respectively, but Joel Ely Serrano cut the deficit to 2:1 for the salvadoreños just before halftime. Josué Odir Flores scored the equaliser for El Salvador with six minutes remaining for the 2:2 final score.

Group B - Day 3

MEXICO PROGRESS; HONDURAS TO COMPETE IN PLAYOFF

21.05.2005: Mexico progressed to the 2005 FIFA Under-17 World Championship after claiming the CONCACAF Final Round Group B title with a 2:0 victory over Canada at the Estadio Carlos González y González in Culiacán, Sinaloa.

Cesar Villaluz and Ever Guzman Zavala scored in the 11th and 86th minutes, respectively, for Mexico (3-0-0, 9 Points) in the win over Canada (1-2-0, 3 Points).

The tricolor qualified to their eighth FIFA U-17 World Championship (second most in CONCACAF) and also have not conceded a goal in their last 664 minutes of CONCACAF Qualification. Mexico holds the CONCACAF U-17 Qualification Record for consecutive minutes without a goal against at 1,018 from 1983-1985.

In an earlier encounter, Honduras (1-1-1, 4 Points) finished second in CONCACAF Final Round Group B after playing to a 1:1 tie against Haiti (0-2-1, 1 Point).

Vinsly Philistin opened the scoring for the Haitians in the 32nd minute, but Luis Fernando Sosa notched the equaliser for the catrachos in the 58th minute of the second half.

Honduras will meet the runner-up from Group A, Costa Rica, in a home-and-away playoff series for the third CONCACAF berth to the FIFA event.
